BUSAD 206 Investments

Catalog

2012-2013

Course Description

Students are provided with a background in investments, including the types of securities available to investors today in the money and capital markets and the security markets where they are traded. Fixed income and equity securities are analyzed from a quantitative perspective. Additional topics include various approaches to common stock analysis and open and closed-end investment companies. This course also requires students to manage funds for the University's endowment.

Prerequisite(s): Grade of "C-" or better in BUSAD 204 Financial Management or permission of the instructor.

(Normally offered each fall semester.)
