Nebraska Wesleyan University

EDUC 001 Introduction to Education in the United States

Catalog

2013-2014

Course Description

A course providing a broad, general survey of education in the United States, designed to help students decide whether to continue coursework in professional education. This course is a prerequisite to further work in the department.

(Normally offered each semester.)

Course Hours

2 hours

Departments

1. Education