THTRE-259 is a directing practicum in which students apply theory and techniques to the task of directing, under supervision, a full length play. The class also continues to introduce students to more advanced directing theories and techniques. All students are expected to actively participate in a series of exercises that emphasize the development of critical thinking, research, communication and organization skills associated with effective stage direction. This course may be repeated for credit.

Prerequisite(s): THTRE-155, THTRE-255, and THTRE-258 and/or permission of the instructor or department chair.

(Normally offered every semester.)
