Nebraska Wesleyan University

HIST 5010 Fundamentals of American History I

Catalog

2014-2015

Course Description

An intensive study of the origins and the development of what is now the United States from 1450 to 1865/1877. Learning with the primary documents and historical scholarship is emphasized. The course is designed to develop knowledge needed for successful teaching of U.S. history in the schools and emphasizes the National History Standards.
Prerequisite(s): Baccalaureate degree and teaching experience, or permission of the instructor.

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Historical Studies (Graduate)