Nebraska Wesleyan University

PHIL 2410 Theories Of Justice

Catalog

2021-2022

Course Description

Theories of Justice explores the theoretical foundations of justice work by studying diverse theories of justice, examining the inter-relationships between theory and practice, considering the possibilities inherent in such a relationship, and prompting critical assessment of subject positions within "efforts to realize a more just society".

Archway Curriculum: Essential Connections: Writing Instructive
Archway Curriculum: Justice Thread

Course Hours

4 hours

Departments

1. Philosophy and Religion