Nebraska Wesleyan University

HIST 2200 Race and Ethnicity at NWU

Catalog

2024-2025

Course Description

This course will explore the history and experiences different racial and ethnic communities at Nebraska Wesleyan. Using archival resources, oral history interviews, and research in secondary literature, students in the course will reconstruct the experiences of a particular racial/ethnic group, and present their findings in a website as well as in a public presentation. Sophomore standing or permission of the instructor.

Course Hours

4 hours

Departments

1. History