

EDUC 108 Introduction to Early Childhood Education

3 hours

Departments/Programs:

Education (Undergraduate)

A course designed for those who are concerned with teaching children from birth through age eight. The content will integrate knowledge about child growth and development into the process of preparing a meaningful educational program for young children. A unit on educational assessment and interpretation of results is also included.