Nebraska Wesleyan University

HHP 175 Introduction to Sport Management and Leadership

Catalog

2013-2014

Course Description

A course introducing students to the theoretical foundations in sport management and leadership. Students will not only be engaged in the historical concepts of sport management but also will address global perspectives, current research and development in the sport management and leadership field.

(Normally offered each semester.)

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Health and Human Performance