Nebraska Wesleyan University

HHP 220 Sport Facility and Event Management

Catalog

2013-2014

Course Description

A comprehensive course in sport management focusing on specialization areas such as: theories and methods of administration of facilities including facility construction and facility operation. This course will include event management and legal ramifications involved in the operation of facilities.

Prerequisite(s): Junior standing.

(Normally offered each spring semester.)

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Health and Human Performance