Nebraska Wesleyan University

POLSC 3210 Constitutional Law

Catalog

2016-2017

Course Description

An advanced course focusing on an examination of the basic principles of U.S. constitutional law, based on study of U.S. Supreme Court cases. Trends in interpretation of the Constitution and the role of Supreme Court decisions in U.S. politics will be stressed.
Prerequisite(s): POLSC 1000FYW United States Government and Politics and junior standing or permission of the instructor.

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Political Science