Nebraska Wesleyan University

BUSAD 5560 Organizational Development and Change

Catalog

2017-2018

Course Description

Organizational development is considered as a multi-step process that may involve a wide variety of interventions. Interventions from those involving basic human processes to those requiring planning at the strategic level are covered. Particular emphasis is placed on selecting appropriate interventions based on thoughtful diagnosis of organizational issues.

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Business Administration (Graduate)