THTRE 2730 Costume Design

3 hours

Departments/Programs:

Theatre

A study of both the history of costume and the techniques of designing costumes. It includes supervised work not only on the design but actual construction of costumes for the theatre. This course may be repeated once for credit.
Prerequisite(s): THTRE-1020 or permission of the instructor.
(Normally offered on even spring semesters.)