Nebraska Wesleyan University

HIST 213 Modern United States, 1932-Present

Catalog

2013-2014

Course Description

A study of society, culture and politics from 1932 to the present beginning with the New Deal and how it transformed the American state. The course then covers World War II, the atomic age and the Cold War, domestic issues in the fifties and sixties such as the Civil Rights Movement, the United States' involvement in Vietnam, changing gender roles and contemporary issues.

Course Hours

4 hours

Departments

1. History