Nebraska Wesleyan University

CRMJS 4980 Senior Seminar

Catalog

2021-2022

Course Description

This seminar enables Sociology-Anthropology, Criminal Justice in Society, and Business-Sociology majors to work collaboratively, to reflect upon and showcase cumulative disciplinary learning and experiences, skills, and ethics, and to develop individual professional selves. Students meet weekly to share internship and thesis experiences, develop public speaking skills, reflect upon cumulative learning, and develop a professional portfolio. The seminar culminates in an Ignite or Pecha Kucha presentation (or a Pecha Kucha film) at a departmental showcase.

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the instructor.
(Normally offered every fall semester.)

Course Hours

1 hour

Departments

1. Sociology and Anthropology