Nebraska Wesleyan University

MUSIC 2550 Praise And Worship Workshop

Catalog

2024-2025

Course Description

This course will focus on training worship leaders and participants in the art of designing and leading contemporary worship services. Emphasis is given to practical aspects such as planning worship services, administering logistical considerations, and rehearsing musical groups. This course will partner with both Campus Ministries and First United Methodist Church to plan and deliver regular worship experiences. Students enrolling in this course need not have musical training although a basic proficiency on an instrument or voice would be helpful.
