Nebraska Wesleyan University

HIST 2200 Race & Ethnicity at NWU

Catalog

2026-2027

Course Description

This course will explore the history and experiences different racial and ethnic communities at Nebraska Wesleyan. Using archival resources, oral history interviews, and research in secondary literature, students in the course will reconstruct the experiences of a particular racial/ethnic group, and present their findings in a website as well as in a public presentation. Sophomore standing or permission of the instructor.

Archway Curriculum: Essential Connections: Experiential Learning: Exploratory
Archway Curriculum: Foundational Literacies: Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion – U.S.
Archway Curriculum: Integrative Core: Identity Thread

Course Hours

4 hours

Departments

1. History