

BIO 3530 Principles of Marine Biology

2 hours

Departments/Programs:

Biology

One credit hour course focusing on basic concepts in marine biology. Topics discussed in this course include basic oceanography, plankton ecology, nekton biology, meiofauna, marine communities, and the impact of humans on marine systems. One lecture per week.

Prerequisite(s): BIO-1400 or permission of the instructor.