Nebraska Wesleyan University

EDUC 3140 Methods for Teaching Modern Languages in 7-12

Catalog

2017-2018

Course Description

A study of a variety of methods as well as curriculum design/implementation for successful teaching of modern languages in the middle and secondary school classroom. Materials are evaluated as well as created to enhance learning. French, German, Japanese, and Spanish are included.
Prerequisite(s): Acceptance into the Teacher Education program or permission of the department chair.
(Normally offered alternate years.)

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Education (Undergraduate)