Nebraska Wesleyan University

HHP 1750 Administration and Human Resources Management

Catalog

2020-2021

Course Description

A course designed to provide students with the basic principles and applications of management and leadership as they relate to the sport industry. Topics include functions of management, organizational behavior, management theories, management style, human resources management, and theories and styles of leadership as they pertain to the sport industry.
Prerequisite(s): Junior standing.

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Health and Human Performance