

HHP 3330 Health Assessment

3 hours

Departments/Programs:

Health and Human Performance

This course will provide skills required to conduct a holistic health assessment through comprehensive analysis of a patient's health status across the age continuum. Topics include: dermatological, cardiovascular, ear, nose and throat, neurological, respiratory, musculoskeletal, gastriontestinal, renal and urogenital, endocrine and metabolic systems, and psychological medical disorders.

Prerequisite(s): Junior standing.

(Normally offered each spring semester.)