Nebraska Wesleyan University

BUSAD 5210 Human Resource Management and Strategy

Catalog

2024-2025

Course Description

This course explores the technical and legal aspects of human resource management from a strategic business perspective. It aims to enhance the students' ability to apply theoretical concepts and alternative approaches for dealing with common issues in the work place. Specific topics include human resource planning and strategy, the legal environment, recruitment and training, assessment and development, and special topics.

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Business Administration (Graduate)