

Course:

BIO 219 Histology

4 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

Biology (B.A.)

Biology (B.S.)

Departments/Programs:

Biology

A study of the microscopic anatomy and functions of the mammalian tissues and organs with modern concepts of histophysiology and histogenesis.

Three lectures per week.

One 3-hour lab per week.

Prerequisite(s): BIO 160 Cell Biology and BIO 170 Genetics.

(Normally offered each spring semester.)