Nebraska Wesleyan University

BIO 253 Principles of Marine Biology

Catalog

2011-2012

Course Description

One credit hour course focusing on basic concepts in marine biology. Topics discussed in this course include basic oceanography, plankton ecology, nekton biology, meiofauna, marine communities, and the impact of humans on marine systems. One lecture per week.

Prerequisite(s): BIO 050 General Biology of Plants or BIO 060 General Biology of Animals or permission of the instructor.

Course Hours

1 hours

Departments

1. Biology