Nebraska Wesleyan University

EDUC 214 Methods for Teaching Modern Languages in Middle and Secondary Schools

Catalog

2011-2012

Course Description

A study of a variety of methods as well as curriculum design/implementation for successful teaching of modern languages in the middle and secondary school classroom. Materials are evaluated as well as created to enhance learning. French, German, Japanese, and Spanish are included.

Prerequisite(s): Acceptance into the Teacher Education program or permission of the department chair.

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Education (Undergraduate)