Nebraska Wesleyan University

FORSC 507 Criminal Law and the Law of Evidence

Catalog

2011-2012

Course Description

In the course, the elements of violent crimes will be reviewed, as well as criminal procedure, constitutional and statutory limitations of criminal investigation, and the Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Amendments. The requirements of conviction, or burden of proof (criminal vs. civil standards), and rules and policies pertaining to evidence will be studied.

Prerequisite(s): Admittance to the Forensic Science graduate program.

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Forensic Science