Nebraska Wesleyan University

HHP 265 Planning and Implementing Adapted Physical Education Programs

Catalog

2011-2012

Course Description

A course designed to include current research findings and the best practices to assist professionals in designing and implementing appropriate physical education programs for individuals with disabilities.

Prerequisite(s): Acceptance into the Teacher Education Program or permission of the department chair, and junior standing.

(Normally offered summers and each spring semester.)

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Health and Human Performance