Course:

HIST 225 Early Modern Europe

3 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors
History (B.A., B.S.)

Departments/Programs:

History

A seminar on early modern European culture up to the French Revolution, with emphasis on changing family relations, political structures, religious and scientific thought, and social and economic conditions, culminating in the Enlightenment and religious revivals.

Prerequisite(s): HIST 116 Western Civilization through Literature 1500 - Present.