Nebraska Wesleyan University

SOC 003 Introduction to Sociology

Catalog

2011-2012

Course Description

This introductory course presents the basic processes of human interaction in everyday life while introducing students to the theories and methods governing social inquiry. The sociological perspective is used to study the impact of the forces of culture, socialization, social stratification, race, gender, and population on human thoughts and actions.

(Normally offered each semester.)

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Sociology and Anthropology