

Course:

BIO 225 Plant Form and Function

4 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

Biology (B.A.)

Biology (B.S.)

Departments/Programs:

Biology

A study of the development, anatomy, and functionality of plant tissues, systems, and organs in representative members of the plant kingdom.

Three lectures per week.

One 3-hour lab per week.

Prerequisite(s): BIO 160 Cell Biology and BIO 170 Genetics.