Nebraska Wesleyan University

BUS 011 Microeconomics

Catalog

2012-2013

Course Description

An examination of the microeconomic theories, problems, and policies of the U.S. economy. Topics include the theory of the firm, market structures, and current economic issues such as income distribution, antitrust policy, poverty, the farm problem, and international trade.

Prerequisite(s): BUS 010 strongly recommended.

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Business (Adult Undergraduate)