Nebraska Wesleyan University

EDUC 260 Methods for Teaching English in Middle and Secondary Schools

Catalog

2012-2013

Course Description

A diagnostic view of all elements pertinent to teaching English in middle and secondary schools. Strong practical emphasis will be placed on the proportional and organized development of middle and secondary English courses, realistic presentation of materials, and the practical and varied methods of testing appropriate to such courses.

Prerequisite(s): Acceptance into the Teacher Education Program or permission of the department chair.

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Education (Undergraduate)