

HIST 209 The United States Since 1945

3 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

History (B.A., B.S.)

Departments/Programs:

History

A study of society and politics from World War II to the present emphasizing the atomic age and the Cold War, domestic issues of the fifties and sixties, the United States' involvement in Vietnam, and concluding with contemporary issues.

Prerequisite(s): HIST-002.