Nebraska Wesleyan University

BIO 255 Principles of Marine Biology and Oceanography

Catalog

2013-2014

Course Description

Two credit hour course focusing on basic concepts in marine biology. Topics discussed in this course include basic oceanography, plankton ecology, nekton biology, meiofauna, marine communities, and the impact of humans on marine systems. One lecture per week.

Prerequisite(s): BIO 050 General Biology of Plants or BIO 060 General Biology of Animals or permission of the instructor.

Course Hours

2 hours

Departments

1. Biology