

BUS 273 Collective Bargaining

3 hours

Departments/Programs:

Business (Adult Undergraduate)

This course presents collective bargaining as an agreement making, an agreement administering, and an agreement enforcing action between labor and management. Collective bargaining principles are analyzed through lectures, class discussion, and guest speakers. Application of these principles is provided through the actual bargaining of a labor contract.

Prerequisite(s): BUS-270 and junior standing or permission of the instructor.