

CMPSC 290 Selected Topics

1-3 hours

Departments/Programs:

Physics, Astronomy, and Computer Science

An upper-level course designed to treat subject matter not covered in other computer science courses. The title, content, and credit hours will be determined by current mutual interests of students and faculty and availability of resources.

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the instructor and department chair.