

Course:

ECON 253 Comparative and Transitional Economic Systems

3 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

Global Studies (B.A., B.S.)

Departments/Programs:

Business, Accounting and Economics (Undergraduate)

A critical analysis of the various real and theoretical economic systems of capitalism and socialism. Specific countries' systems are examined within a contemporary framework.

Prerequisite(s): Junior standing and grade of "C-" or better in ECON 053 Macroeconomic Principles, or permission of the instructor.