Nebraska Wesleyan University

EDUC 108 Introduction to Early Childhood Education

Catalog

2013-2014

Course Description

A course designed for those who are concerned with teaching children from birth through age eight. The content will integrate knowledge about child growth and development into the process of preparing a meaningful educational program for young children. A unit on educational assessment and interpretation of results is also included.

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Education (Undergraduate)