Nebraska Wesleyan University

EDUC 204 Methods for Teaching Modern Languages K-6

Catalog

2013-2014

Course Description

A study of a variety of methods as well as curriculum design/implementation for successful teaching of modern languages in the elementary classroom. Materials are evaluated as well as created to enhance learning. French, German, Japanese, and Spanish are included.

Prerequisite(s): Acceptance into the Teacher Education program or permission of the department chair.

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Education (Undergraduate)