Course:

PHIL 298 Seminar in Philosophy

3 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

Philosophy (B.A., B.S.)

Departments/Programs:

Philosophy and Religion

This is an advanced course in which special philosophical problems or particular philosophers or certain philosophical movements are selected for study. The subject matters for the course will be determined by a configuration of student and faculty interest. May be repeated with permission of the instructor.

Prerequisite(s): Junior standing or permission of the instructor.