

Course:

SPAN 203 Reading Strategies

2 hours

Majors, Minors & Degrees:

Majors

Spanish (B.A.)

Minors

Spanish

Departments/Programs:

Modern Languages

Spanish 203 is a third-year course designed to provide guided practice in Spanish reading. Students will read a variety of texts, including short stories, essays, poetry and media texts, and will be introduced to strategies for interpreting and analyzing those texts. Prerequisite: Spanish Stage 4 or equivalent, or permission of Department.