Nebraska Wesleyan University

HIST 559 The Evolution of Civil Liberties in the United States

Catalog

2013-2014

Course Description

This course engages participants with historical episodes in Nebraska dealing with civil liberties, civil rights, and social justice. Students will use documents, objects, place, and the wisdom of elders to explore the relationships between Nebraska, the United States, and its Constitution.

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Historical Studies (Graduate)