Nebraska Wesleyan University

BIO 3530 Principles of Marine Biology

Catalog

2014-2015

Course Description

One credit hour course focusing on basic concepts in marine biology. Topics discussed in this course include basic oceanography, plankton ecology, nekton biology, meiofauna, marine communities, and the impact of humans on marine systems. One lecture per week.
Prerequisite(s): BIO 1400 Introduction to Biological Inquiry or permission of the instructor.

Course Hours

2 hours

Departments

1. Biology