Nebraska Wesleyan University

ECON 1540 Microeconomic Principles

Catalog

2014-2015

Course Description

An examination of the microeconomic theories, problems, and policies of the U.S. economy. Topics include the theory of the firm, market structures, and current economic issues such as income distribution, antitrust policy, poverty, the farm problem, and international trade.
Prerequisite(s): ECON 1530 Macroeconomic Principles strongly recommended.
(Normally offered each semester.)

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Business (Adult Undergraduate)
2. Business, Accounting and Economics (Undergraduate)