Nebraska Wesleyan University

PSYCH 2650 Psychology of Gender

Catalog

2014-2015

Course Description

A course examining the construct of gender. Topics include gender development and socialization, cross-cultural gender differences, institutions affecting gender roles, the social maintenance systems for gender roles, and gender issues in contemporary literature and the arts.
Prerequisite(s): Sophomore standing.
(Normally offered each spring semester.)

Course Hours

4 hours

Departments

1. Psychology