

ENG 3960 Special Projects

1-15 hours

Departments/Programs:

English

A projects course designed to analyze and develop techniques and subjects not involved in any of the standard courses. The topic, content, and credit will be determined by current, mutual interests of students and faculty. This course may be counted toward a major empahsis area with the approval of the department chair.