Nebraska Wesleyan University

HHP 3210 Current Issues and Ethics in Sport

Catalog

2014-2015

Course Description

This course is designed as an engaging, in-depth, and inspiring study that will help students understand the value of sport and its limitations and equip them to make ethical choices about the role sports will play in their life and profession.
(Normally offered each spring semester.)

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Health and Human Performance