Nebraska Wesleyan University

SOC 2340 Latino Experiences in U.S. Society

Catalog

2014-2015

Course Description

This course explores the history and contemporary issues of Latinos in U.S. society. It covers the contribuations and experiences of the diverse racial/ethnic/cultural groups from Central and South America, Mexico, and the Caribbean who have become part of the society both as immigrants and as conquered peoples. Topics related to Latino experiences in the U.S. include: identity, language, immigration, population growth, political involvement, education, health, integration, and economics.
(Normally offered each fall semester.)

Course Hours

3 hours

Departments

1. Sociology and Anthropology