COMM 4970 Internship

Catalog

2015-2016

Course Description

The Senior-Level Communication Internship has been developed to provide a culminating experience for your major, thus senior status (successful completion of 90 or more credit hours) is required. In addition, it is often the case that a senior level internship offers amazing career exploration opportunites. The Senior-Level internship should be viewed as seriously as you would a full-time job.
Pass/Fail only.
Prerequisite(s): Senior standing and permission of the department chair.
(Normally offered each semester and summer.)
