

SPAN 4220 The Culture of Spanish-Speaking South America

2 hours

Departments/Programs:

Modern Languages

This course is an introduction to the culture and civilization of Spanish-speaking South America, with an emphasis on the 20th and 21st centuries.

(Not open to native speakers of Spanish.)

Prerequisite(s): SPAN-3050 and six credits from SPAN-3010, SPAN-3020, SPAN-3030, or SPAN-3040 or permission of the department.