

Course:

MATH 4800 Research Experience

0-3 hours

Departments/Programs:

Mathematics

An independent research experience involving survey and synthesis of literature in a particular mathematical topic. In some cases, the student may undertake novel investigations. The experience will culminate in a conference-style presentation and written report. Students will keep a reflection journal throughout the experience.

Prerequisite: Permission of Department Chair.

Pass/Fail Only.